

Bavarian Graduate Program in Economics

Course announcement “Behavioral Economics”

The Bavarian Graduate Program in Economics (BGPE) invites contributions to the next BGPE course “Behavioral Economics”. The course will take place in Pfaffenhofen an der Ilm on July 28 – August 01, 2025 and will be taught by Stephanie Wang from the University of Pittsburgh.

Preference will be given to Ph.D. students in Economics from the following Bavarian universities: Augsburg, Bamberg, Bayreuth, Eichstätt-Ingolstadt, Erlangen-Nürnberg, LMU Munich, Passau, Regensburg, TU Munich and Würzburg. The BGPE covers their course fee incl. costs of meals (no drinks), and accommodation in double rooms. The BGPE does not cover any travel expenses. The students are expected to take part in the final exam after the course on August 14, 2025.

Students from other, in particular non-Bavarian, Ph.D. programs can participate if the course is not fully booked and if they pay a fee of 1500 Euro per person in advance. The fee will cover the course itself and the option to take part in the exam.

After successful participation in the final exam, you will receive a BGPE course certificate.

The application deadline is June 22, 2025. For further information (incl. course description) please check www.bgpe.de. Notices of acceptance are usually sent about 4 weeks before the course.

Please feel free to forward this to anyone who may be interested or to announce the course at your department.
